

Learning Rooms

List of available and upcoming learning rooms as of September 2014

Learning Rooms

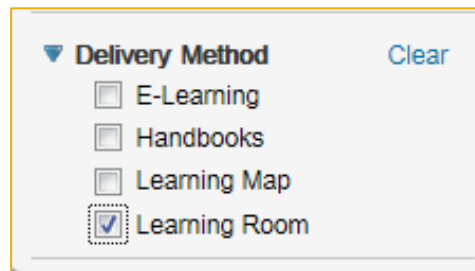

Learning Rooms are expert-moderated social learning components within SAP Learning Hub. They cover specific topics and are structured to cover a learning or certification path you might like to follow. Where a room covers a certification, the code is included on the following pages. You can join other learners with similar learning objectives who wish to learn the same information. Learning Rooms are open ended so you can join at any time and are available to all paid subscribers of SAP Learning Hub.
